

Dragon Masters Story Starters (c) 2025 Pure West Productions, Inc.

Dragon Master Opeli and Ka the Lava Dragon were exploring the beach one morning. They came upon a giant clam as big as Ka.

“I have never seen a clam this big!” Opeli said.

Slowly, the clamshell began to open . . .

Wayra the Wind Dragon soared across the sky, with Quilla on her back.

They flew over a waterfall. Quilla noticed a boat heading toward the falls, moving very fast.

“They’re going to go over the falls!” Quilla cried.

Dragon Masters Drake and Bo walked through the dark woods.

“I think we are lost,” Bo said.

“I think you’re right,” Drake said. “I can’t reach Worm with my mind, either. Is some kind of magic doing this?”

Dragon Master Stella danced in the stars with Nova the Star Dragon.

Then they heard the sound of a magical flute drift from Earth.

“We are being summoned!” Stella exclaimed.

Dragon Master Llew was exploring the grotto of the Crystal Cave. A black sparkle caught his eye.

He wheeled to the black crystal growing out of the wall.

“I’ve never seen a magical crystal like this before,” he said.

“Drake, Ana, thank you for coming to the Castle of the Wizards,” said Head Wizard Jayana. “We need your help. Each night, one wizard from the castle disappears, and we don’t know why!”